

“Yo, What’s up!”

Girl’s Voice is a program that provides a variety of activities and forums that focus on quality education and character development. We prioritize diversity, positive relationships, and conflict resolution to improve your child’s non-academic intelligence. We will spend the summer playing games, painting, taking dance class, and completing different projects that all tie in to each weeks theme.

We’re also, just like.. so totally radical!

Week One - June 26th

Welcome
Girls Voice Objective: Introduction

Members will participate in ice breakers and group games. Members should end the week feeling comfortable and ready to take on the summer!

Week Two - July 5

Around the World
Girls Voice Objective: Diversity

Members will learn about different races, cultures, and modern family dynamics. The week will conclude with an activity on how we can all relate to each other. (Club closed July 3rd & 4th).

Week Three - July 10

We Got Spirit Week
Girls Voice Objective: Conflict

Members will learn about emotional regulation and problem solving. Members should end the week with a sense of leadership and team building skills.

Weeks Four & Five - July 17 & 24

Challenge Week & Under the Sea
Girls Voice Objective: Home Economics

Members will learn about basic household chores, making simple no heat snacks and how to read recipes. We will also focus on maintaining a schedule and prioritizing.

Week Six - July 31

Into the Wild Week
Girls Voice Objective: Mindfulness

Members will learn about self-awareness, awareness of others and self confidence. We will conclude the week reviewing puberty and feminine hygiene.

Week Seven - August 7

Be a Good Sport Week
Girls Voice Objective: Building/Maintaining positive relationships

Members will learn to identify positive and negative relationships. We will review bullying and discuss how to be a good friend.

Week Eight - August 14

Celebration Week
Girls Voice Objective: Talent Show

Members participate in annual fashion show and Girls Voice end of the summer celebration!
